

Announcing

ACSM FIG Forum FIG Congress Student Fellowship

This is the first time for this prestigious award. It is sponsored by the three ACSM Member Organizations that participate in the International Federation of Surveyors (FIG)—
AAGS – American Association for Geodetic Surveying
GLIS – Geographic and Land Information Society
NSPS – National Society of Professional Surveyors

This fellowship award provides full funding for the Fellow to travel to, attend, and participate in 2010 FIG Congress being held in Sydney, Australia and is an exceptional opportunity to participate at the preeminent international surveying conference, network with surveyors, fellow students and young surveyors from around the world while living with a local surveyor/student family during the Congress.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

The ACSM FIG Forum FIG Congress Student Fellowship includes:

- Round-trip economy class transportation from home airport to Sydney, Australia.
- Complimentary Registration for 2010 FIG Congress with all Congress benefits.
- Participation as an official ACSM FIG Forum Delegate at the Congress.
- All Congress meals and selected social events.
- Accommodations with surveyor/student family while attending Congress.
- Selected activity and participation with FIG Young Surveyors Network.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

- You must be currently enrolled as a student at a 4-year U.S. Institution in an ABET accredited surveying/geomatics program.
- You must be a Student Member of ACSM. (see www.acsm.net/studentapp.pdf)
- You must have a current, valid US Passport with a minimum of 6 months remaining beyond dates of the Congress.

HOW DO I APPLY?

The recipient of the ACSM FIG Forum FIG Congress Student Fellowship will be decided by the ACSM FIG Forum which consists of representatives from AAGS, GLIS, and NSPS. The successful applicant will have a technical paper accepted by the Forum through a peer review process.

The closing date for submission of papers is October 30, 2009. Application and full details of the requirements for the papers and how to submit them are available on the ACSM website at www.acsm.net/fig.html